Staff at I.C.A.R. headquarters

2840. SHRI DIPEN GHOSH: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether several additions were made to staff/posts at ICAR Headquarters during the Sixth Five-Year Plan, if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefor; and

(b) whether the Central animal research institutes are located in Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Kerala, if so, what are the locations thereof; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHANDULAL CHANDRAKAR): (a) A statement showing the additions made to staff/posts at ICAR Head quarters during the Sixth Plan is annexed hereto. The additions to the staff/posts were made for the schemes/projects as shown in the said statement.

(b) The main Campuses of none of the Central Animal Sciences Research, Institute are located in the four Southern States. However, large campuses regional Stations of the Central Animal Science Research Institutes are located in the States of:

1. Karnataka (Indian Veterinary Research Institute at Bangalore).

2. Karnataka (National Dairy Research Institute at Bangalore).

3. Tamil Nadu (Central Sheep & Wool Research Institute at Mannavanur).

Another Centre of Central Sheep & Wool Research Institute and a Centre of Central Aviation Research Institute are proposed to be located in these States. In addition, Centres of a number of coordinated research projects on livestock are located in these States.

(c) The location of a Central Institute is decided on the basis of importance of the species, its population, and good descript breeds available and the possibility of acquiring sufficient land at a location suitable for research on a species and for the staff. Task forces comprising of senior scientists both from within the ICAR and from outside recommends the requirements and helps in selection of suitable site Of the Institutes so far established, none of the Southern States were considered either important or were in a position to make suitable land available. The National Bureau of Animal Genetics Resources and Institute of Animal Genetics were planned to be located in Karnataka but because of the difficulty faced by the State Government in making suitable land available at the location recommended/required, it had to be shifted to Karnal in Haryana.
